About The Sales Warrior's Convention

In 2017, Daniel Choudry, the founding Director at the Daniel Choudry Sales Institute, had a transformative experience at the Robin Sharma Thought Leader's Conference in Dubai, where the renowned International Leadership Expert and Author of The 5AM Club, served as the Keynote Speaker. This event greatly disrupted his thought process and life approach, leading him to decide to initiate a similar endeavor in Uganda to elevate the competence of fellow citizens, particularly in the business world. Thus, the Sales Warrior - the biggest most practical conference for businesses in East Africa was born in 2019.

The previous two Conventions in 2019 and 2023 have been primarily focused on business development.

The Sales Warrior's Convention of 2024 will be headlined by Vusi Thembekwayo as the Keynote Speaker.

VUSI is a global Speaker with experience and depth in Business, Leadership, Inspiration and Strategy and a series of other areas he's proficient in. We believe that his experience will be of fundamental significance to all our professional network in East Africa.

We had so many people who are not in Sales express their need for a platform where they can build momentum in areas of Leadership and career growth. The Sales Warrior's Convention 2024 is our way of responding to this need. In 2019, the inaugural event was held at the International University of East Africa Auditorium, drawing a gathering of over 800 sales professionals from diverse industries across East Africa. The second convention in 2023 saw even more attendance, with over 1200 sales people coming together at the Kampala Serena. The upcoming 2024

Sales Warrior's Convention, with the theme "MAKE YOUR MARK IN 2024," will be graced by the renowned International Sales Expert Daniel Choudry, and the Keynote Speaker will be Mr. Vusi Thembekwayo. Spanning two days, the event will offer a diverse range of activities tailored to meet the needs of various segments in the professional market place.

GOVERNMENT EXECUTIVES WITH VUSI

The prosperity of any economy hinges largely on the success of its government. Since its establishment in 1971, the United Arab Emirates (UAE) has experienced remarkable growth that has astonished the world and continues to accelerate. The UAE competes across various sectors and leads in groundbreaking projects. We strongly believe that the leaders of our civic institutions can learn valuable lessons from the UAE's success. Vusi has previously addressed the leadership of this accomplished nation, and now, we aim to enlighten our civil leaders about best practices in mindset, competence, and execution. The objective is to elevate the standards of running our government ministries and directorates.

The theme for this session will be "The Astute Civil Servant: Reshaping our Public Sector with a Private Sector Mindset to Survive, Progress, and Prosper!"
